Vespers tonight is by Prayer Ministries. The Seventh-day Adventist church experienced unprecedented growth in the mid-twentieth century, thanks to the pioneers like HMS Richards, George Vandeman, Mark Finley and Charles D. Brooks. C.D. Brooks, was one of the church's foremost evangelists, and led a 60-year ministry that resulted in more than 15,000 baptisms on six continents. He was also the founding speaker of the Breath of Life television ministry for 23 years. Join the Prayer Ministry for tonight's Vespers for "Stories I Love to Tell," a candid conversation with CD Brooks as he tells of his conversion, that of his parents and his call to evangelism. Come and be inspired by the Holy Spirit as we close the Sabbath on a reverent note.

Keep up with events, small groups, ministry meetings and all that's going on at our church on our online calendar: www.alpharettasda.com/calendar
